

Baltimore CAN

Raise the Standards for a Better Baltimore!

Baltimore CAN has come together, uniting communities, congregations, workers, youth, and small businesses to demand more from development. We call upon the Mayor, City Council, and other elected officials to stand up for Baltimore and expect more from developers, especially those receiving taxpayer subsidies, by enacting Community Standards legislation that requires:

- ✓ Community Participation and Transparency
- ✓ Environmental and Health Safeguards
- ✓ Housing Affordability Protections
- ✓ Well-integrated Transportation and Parking
- ✓ Public Safety
- ✓ Historic Preservation
- ✓ Responsible Business Development
- ✓ Quality Job Creation*

For too long, communities across Baltimore have stood alone against politically connected developers and big-box retailers that disregard the concerns of neighborhoods, workers, and nearby businesses as they apply suburban standards that threaten the urban fabric we value. But together...
